Allgemeines:

Universitas Airlangga (UNAIR) with its tagline “Excellent with Morality” is one of the oldest and best universities in Indonesia. The tagline acts as the foundation for every activity performed by the UNAIR’s academic community to achieve the just and civilized global society. UNAIR is mainly located in Surabaya, the second biggest city in Indonesia. The Surabaya campus consists of Campus A, B, and C and each one is in close proximity to the other ones. The Surabaya campus is located in the city centre and UNAIR always pays attention to greenery, as Surabaya – the vibrant city where UNAIR is based – shows greater concern on public parks and cleanliness. It creates a comfortable and refreshing atmosphere for the students during their studies. UNAIR has 173 study programmes spreading in 14 faculties, two postgraduate schools. These programmes have been accredited by the national accreditation agency and some of them have also been accredited by international accreditation agencies.
