GENERAL INFORMATION

CAF

The Student Support Center for Foreigners provides our students, both foreign and national, with advice, support and accompaniment for the satisfaction and wellbeing during their university study experience and their stay in Cancún.

ADDITIONAL SERVICES

Flights, and extra optional business visits and excursions (where they are not already included in the course) and accommodation are charged separately and paid directly to the provider (can be included in tailor-made courses for groups).

VISA

A student visa is not required for international short courses however, citizens of some countries may be required to apply to a visa to visit Mexico, it is your responsibility to check and make arrangements before travelling. You may need an ESTA to travel in/through the United States, it is suggested to make arrangements well in advance.
